12_ 10, 1956

To: American Consul General

From: Acting Treasury Representative in Charge

On Ecounder 7, 1958, ave. Tomas called in reply to my earlier call to Feltrimelii's office. I told him that we had a letter from the Eurean of Customs taking us to obtain further information from Feltrimelli concerning his compright claim and to inform him as to the formalities necessary to register the claim properly. I told his that if Feltrimelli was still interested in the question I could arrange an appointment with him to get this further information.

Cornish envising needed. He said that they had beard in the meenties use it was use intended to publish a Russian edition in the United States, the University of Ichican. He said the University of Hichican. He said the University of Hichigan had written to religionally stating that they intended to publish a Russian edition and asking him on what basis he thought be held a universal copyright to the Aussian language version of Postor Thiragge Teache said that Feltrically had replied to the Eniversity of Hichigan, giving details about his copyright, on October 30.

Therefore said also that the news emference gives by Feltrinelli and Menton furnitured erroneous information to the press about the loss of the memberial which had to the piratical edition of 1,000 copies. He said that in the contract signed by Mouten and Feltrinelli, Mouten a compact full responsibility, agreed to pay demages, and agreed to pay for publication of a public acknowledgement of their responsibility for the piratical edition in the leading neversors of the world, including the New York Times, London Times, and Carriers dalla Bare-Deceme said he already had the text of the public acknowledgement of Responsibility and the course of publication, and was at present in the course of having the statement translated into the various languages.

Tenone said that Poltsinelli would be in Kilan on Monday the 1886 and that both he and Poltsinelli would come to this office on either Monday or Tuesday.

Liberton Law

TREA Review Completed